- e. Proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order for judgment.

7. No scheduling or pretrial conference shall be held in this matter unless requested in writing by counsel for any party. Any request for such conference shall state the reasons therefore, and a copy must be provided to counsel for all other parties to this proceeding.

8. This order is issued without prior consultation with counsel for any party. Accordingly, if the dates fixed herein present an undue burden on counsel or any party to this proceeding, counsel shall so inform the Court by way of a written request to alter such dates. Such written request shall state:

- a. The reasons for any extension of time;
- b. That counsel has conferred with counsel to all other parties to this proceeding regarding any proposed extension; and
- c. The outcome of such conference.

A copy of any such request must be provided to counsel for all other parties to this proceeding.

9. Counsel should understand that, except as altered by this court after proper request, dates fixed hereby are mandatory. Deadlines shall not be extended except for good cause. No motion shall be heard unless filed prior to the expiration of the deadline set. The Court reserves the right to act upon such motions without a hearing, if circumstances so mandate.

10. Failure to abide by the provisions of this Order may result in imposition of sanctions upon counsel or a party.
